

BIO-DATA

Moez K. Walji, CMA, ACMA (UK)

Moez Walji, co-founder of GLX Foundation, has been instrumental during the pre-formation stages and has played an important role in developing strategic framework for the Foundation with Dr. Gillani, the principal founder. Moez holds the position of Governor, and Director of International Affairs at the Foundation.

His expertise and depth in diversified commercial and professional activities is as follows:

Moez is a Tanzanian born entrepreneur and co-founder and CEO of iPower2 Technology Solutions (Pty) Ltd. He has over 30 years of extensive well-rounded business experience at the higher echelon of senior leadership covering industry segments in manufacturing, service, distribution, mining, automotive and information technology.

Moez has professional designation from UK and Canada; and has successfully deployed leadership roles as CEO, CFO, Director of Finance, Management Consultant, Y2K Project Manager and ERP systems implementer.

Moez has trained and motivated staff at all levels and cross functionally. Roles included development and execution of strategy and operating plans in mid size to large organizations.

Noted for contribution in Leadership roles in diverse industries for leading teams in Strategy development, Operational efficiency, Mergers and Acquisitions, Mentoring and coaching key management. A key participant in Total Quality concepts and developed Operational objectives to be executed within the benchmarks set (EVA/ROI etc.) resulting in dramatic 300% profitability improvements within a year. The change management role included new ERP implementations, acquisitions, global rebranding of a multi-billion dollar company and regulatory compliance.